Phyllis Walker PACE Bursary

George Brown College, School of Early Childhood, held its annual awards ceremony in April and Rina Takizawa and Monique Weathly were presented with a bursary. The funding for this award is provided by a Living Legacy donation in memory of Phyllis Walker. It also provides funding for ECE Teachers' scholarships in Jamaica.

ECE Students Visit Jamaica

This past January brought with it many exciting rewards and challenges for 10 Early Childhood Education Students and 2 Nursing Students from George Brown College. These 12 students had the good fortune to complete their final practicum experience in Jamaica for the month of January.

Dr. Pamela Appelt, Ryerson Volunteer

A retired judge of the Court of Canadian Citizenship, Dr. Pamela Appelt has been the patron of Ryerson's Viola Desmond Awards since 2017. A strong ally of the university's Equity and Community Inclusion team, Pamela has lent her name to raising awareness and funds for the annual awards which celebrate the achievements of Black women in Canada. Her continued support helps provide access to a Ryerson education for deserving women from across the country
